KENNETH R. OGLE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Kenneth R. Ogle Memorial Scholarship Program. The scholarship is open to any active firefighter within the State of Tennessee. The purpose of this scholarship is to provide a fireman who might not otherwise be able to attend the Chapter's annual training a means by which he/she can attend. The funding for this scholarship comes from the family of Kenneth R. Ogle and administered by the chapter's Scholarship Committee.

To be eligible for the scholarship the applicant must complete the application in full and return it to Bo Kaylor, 227 South Pine Street, Dayton, Tennessee 37321.

The application must be returned to the scholarship committee no later than May 1st of the current year. Accompanying the application there must be a letter from the applicant's fire department's Chief, Public Safety Director, or equivalent confirming the active firefighter's status. Within this letter there must also be a statement of commitment by the applicant that it is understood that the applicant will use this training to assist those officials involved in the investigation of fires and explosions within the applicant's jurisdiction.

All applications received complete and by the due date shall be reviewed by the scholarship selection committee and the awardee shall be notified on or about June 1st of the current year of his/her approval. The choice(s) of the committee shall be final.

The scholarship shall cover the cost of lodging for the entire conference, usually Sunday through Thursday nights. The cost of all registration fees and class material will be covered as will any expense deemed necessary by the family of Kenneth R. Ogle. The awardee will also receive per diem for food to be paid the amount equal to the current State of Tennessee expense reimbursement.

Kenneth R. Ogle was a member of the Tennessee Chapter, IAAI for a longtime. Kenneth served several terms on the Board of Directors and served as the Chapter's President in 1998. Kenneth's dedication and hard work for the Chapter did not go unnoticed. The Officers and Directors of the Tennessee Chapter, IAAI presented Kenneth with the Life Time Member Award. Kenneth served Gatlinburg Fire Department for many years as a Fire Marshall.
