STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Dear Applicant:

The Tennessee Chapter IAAI Student Scholarship provides financial assistance for students to attend the Chapter's Annual Training Conference. The student must be pursuing a formal education, at an appropriately accredited college or university, in a curriculum consistent with the mission of the Tennessee Chapter of the International Association of Arson Investigators (e.g., Fire or Forensic Science - with emphasis on fire investigation, Fire/Explosion Investigation, Fire Protection Engineering). This scholarship is supported by the Officers, Board of Directors and members of the TN Chapter IAAI. Two scholarships to the TN Chapter IAAI Annual Training Conference may be awarded annually, at the discretion of the TN Chapter IAAI Officers and Board of Directors.

Applicants must be enrolled in an undergraduate/graduate program in the State of Tennessee and/or be a current resident of the State of Tennessee. Applicants must submit an application, along with a narrative describing their eligibility, goals, need, involvement in the industry as well as any community service experience. A grade report for the prior semester shall accompany the application.

To be eligible for the scholarship the applicant must complete the application in full and return it to TN Chapter IAAI, P.O. Box 4501 Cleveland, TN 37320-4501 or email the application to secretary@tniaai.org by June 1st of the current year.

All completed applications received by the due date shall be reviewed by the TN Chapter IAAI's Scholarship Committee. The awardee shall be notified on or about July 1st of the current year of his/her approval.

The scholarship shall cover the cost of lodging for the TN Chapter IAAI Annual Training Conference (Sunday through Thursday nights). The cost of the conference registration fee and meals for the week (current GSA per diem rate).
